

ARBRIOS

Alexander Valley
Cabernet sauvignon

The Wine News June/July 2003

“Dense and chewy, yet very soft on delivery...with a nice finish.
An exotic, sexy wine.” “A very impressive Cab...could easily demand more princely sums.”

Carafe April 2003

“Arbios is virtually a one-man show starting with 125 cases in 1993 and settling in at about 3,000 now” making “excellent wine at a fair price.”

Austin American Statesman January 2003

“This is a luscious and tasteful wine grown entirely from a small mountain vineyard in Alexander Valley.”

Fort Worth Star-Telegram December 2002

“An experienced vagabond vintner tackles a new venture.
Bill Arbios, former winemaker for Lyeth and Jarvis, is now expressing his own artistry with his own wine.”

Wine Enthusiast November 2002

Bill Arbios “was one of the pioneers in setting the standards for meritage wines while at Lyeth in 1981. He started Arbios Cellars in 1993, and since then has been producing high quality, reasonably priced Cabernet.”

Sherry – Lehmann, Inc. New York

“A relative newcomer to the California wines scene and destined for greatness”

Wine Spectator November 1997

“Promising new name in California Cabernet Sauvignon”
